

CALAMUS LUTHERAN PARISH MISSION STATEMENT:

That we will be a people of God blessed by God,
who are a blessing to others in all parts of the earth,
a faithful people in worship and witness,
working together within churches called Faith and Our Savior's that do not belong to themselves but to the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

New Business:

- Request from Heather Grau for permission to re-engage the ministry of providing meals for new moms and those people needing some love and care. The new ministry would be called "Meals of Love." Heather would compile and manage a list of members interested in providing freezable meals to those who have had a new baby, undergone surgery, experiencing a serious illness or the death of a family member. The need for this ministry could be communicated through the pastor, church office of Heather.
- Decision of approval for those wanting to affirm their baptismal vows at Faith Church, Sunday, May 15: from Our Savior's – Riley Bruns, Maia Glover and Drake Olson; from Faith – Caleb Banowetz and Karragan Whitman.
