

THANKSGIVING COMMUNITY SERVICE
Our Savior's Lutheran Church
November 21, 2012 – 7:00 p.m.

Welcome in Jesus' name. Please consider using the prelude as a time for meditation and silent prayer. This is the ideal time for quiet preparation, as we come to worship God. Holy Communion is celebrated today. All who are baptized into Christ Jesus are invited forward to receive Holy Communion. Those not communing may come forward to receive a blessing.

Welcome and Announcements

GATHERING HYMN: Come, Ye Thankful People, Come – Hymn 693

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

LITANY OF THANKSGIVING

P: Let us give thanks to God for our country and for our president, for ballot boxes, newspaper editorials, and open borders.

C: For all the freedoms we enjoy.

P: Let us give thanks for this vast world, for diplomats, treaties, and compromise.

C: For peace in a world of war.

P: For police officers, streetlights, and concerned neighbors.

C: For safety from fear and harm.

P: Let us give thanks to God for the Scriptures, for creeds and confessions, for the songs and hymns of God's people.

C: For all good things in our heritage of faith.

P: Let us give thanks to God for a marvelous creation, a redeeming Son, and a transforming Spirit.

C: For all the benefits of our salvation.

P: Let us give thanks to God for purple and orange sunsets, bright red flowers, great gray elephants, and the vast blackness of space.

C: For all the wonders, God, of your creative mind.

P: Let us give thanks to God for Mozart, Michelangelo, and Milton, for pianos, paint brushes, and pencils.

C: For all the wonders of our creative minds, made in your image, O Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to God for Thanksgiving turkey, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, and pumpkin pie.

C: For the abundance of food that sustains our bodies.

P: Let us give thanks to God for soft beds, warm fires, familiar chairs, and open windows.

C: For the abundant comfort of our homes.

P: Let us give thanks to God for cars that run, brand-new shoes, and long, hot showers.

C: For God's goodness that flows above and beyond our needs.

P: Let us give thanks to God for healthy immune systems, for gifted doctors and nurses, for the miracle of science.

C: For the strength and health of our bodies.

P: Let us give thanks to God for crossword puzzles, learning foreign languages, and the physics that hold our universe in balance.

C: For healthy, strong minds.

P: Let us give thanks to God for newborn babies, pesky little brothers, wise grandmothers, favorite uncles, loving parents, and fresh fiancées.

C: For the families that shaped our lives.

P: Let us give thanks to God for men and women with dark skin and light skin, freckles and curls, pug noses and beards, graceful limbs, and ample laps.

C: For all the beautiful diversity of people, all over the world, who make up the one family of God, bound together in Jesus Christ.

P: For all these things, we give thanks and praise to God.

C: Amen

CHOIR: "Now We Thank You, Lord" – Williams and Nolan

Psalm 126 (To be read responsively by whole verse)

When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy;
then it was said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."

The LORD has done great things for us, and we rejoiced.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the watercourses in the Negeb.

May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.

Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing,
shall come home with shouts of joy,
carrying their sheaves.

*P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the sixth chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL: Matthew 6:25—33

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you--you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?' For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

CHILDREN'S SERMON: Pastor Sarah Kretzmann

SERMON: Pastor Toni Brewster

Silent time for reflection

"It is only with gratitude that life becomes rich."

- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

HYMN: *Praise and Thanksgiving – Hymn 689

NICENE CREED

P: Using the words of the Nicene Creed let us confess our holy faith:

C: We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

PEACE

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: And also with you.

OFFERING (No monetary offering will be collected this evening)
COLLECTION OF CANNED FOOD OFFERING

OFFERTORY: God, Whose Farm Is All Creation – Hymn 734

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

LORD'S PRAYER

P: Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:

C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

HYMN: Here Is Bread – Hymn 483

COMMUNION

Hymns Sung during Holy Communion:

We Praise You, O God – Hymn 870

Now Thank We All Our God – Hymn 840

For the Beauty of the Earth – Hymn 879

(You many remain seated)

P: The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.

C: Amen

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

P: Let us pray.

O God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hands is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen

HYMN: *Let All Things Now Living

(Congregation stands and joins choir on the third verse)

Let all things now living A song of thanksgiving
To God the Creator triumphantly raise,
Who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us,
Who guideth us on to the end of our days.
His banners are o'er us, His light goes before us,
A pillar of fire shining forth in the night,
'Til shadows have vanished And darkness is banished,
As forward we travel from light into light.

BLESSING

P: The peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

C: Amen

DISMISSAL

P: Go in peace. Serve the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

"Simple Gifts"

was written by Elder Joseph while he was at the Shaker community in Alfred, Maine in 1848. These are the lyrics to his one-verse song:

'Tis the gift to be simple, 'tis the gift to be free,

'Tis the gift to come down where you ought to be,

And when we find ourselves in the place just right,

'Twill be in the valley of love and delight.

When true simplicity is gain'd,

To bow and to bend we shan't be asham'd,

To turn, turn will be our delight,

'Til by turning, turning we come round right.
